

Dallas Museum of Art 2008-2009 Internship Opportunities

Josh Rose

The Dallas Museum of Art, through the help of the Eugene McDermott Education Fund, will offer ten paid internship positions - four in the Museum's Education Department, and six in its Curatorial Department. All positions will begin on September 2, 2008. These internships are intended for those individuals who wish to explore the possibilities of a career in museum work.

The Dallas Museum of Art's encyclopedic collection encompasses more than 20,000 works of art that span 5,000 years of history and represent all media with renowned strengths in the arts of the ancient Americas, Africa, Indonesia and South Asia; European and American painting, sculpture, and decorative arts; and American and international contemporary art. It is the only general art museum in North Texas. The Dallas Museum of Art is the anchor of the Dallas Arts District and serves as a cultural magnet for the city with diverse programming ranging from exhibitions and lectures to concerts, literary readings, dramatic and dance presentations, and a full spectrum of programs designed to engage people of all ages with the power and excitement of art.
