

The Eighth Lamp: Ruskin Studies Today

D C Rose

THE OSCHOLARS group of journals is proud to announce the inaugural issue of The Eighth Lamp: Ruskin Studies Today, edited by Dr Anuradha Chatterjee of the University of South Australia. This may be found on our website at www.oscholars.com. Anyone wishing to be on the mailing list for alerts when future issues are published should contact the undersigned at oscholars@gmail.com. Articles and other material relating to Ruskin (Calls for Papers, announcements of publications etc) should be sent to Dr Chatterjee at the e-address given on the website.

We would be delighted to have this announcement forwarded to interested colleagues or other listservs.

David Charles Rose

D.C. Rose M.A. (Oxon), Dip.ArtsAdmin (NUI-Dublin)
Editor, THE OSCHOLARS
Président, Société Oscar Wilde en France
Paris Correspondent, Nineteenth Century Art Worldwide
1 rue Gutenberg, 75015 Paris
www.oscholars.com

--

Reference:

ANN: The Eighth Lamp: Ruskin Studies Today. In: ArtHist.net, Mar 21, 2008 (accessed Jul 3, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/30271>>.