

Malevich Society, grant competition 2008 (Deadline: 30 Sep 08)

Julia Tulovsky

Dear Colleagues,

The Malevich Society, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to advancing knowledge of the artist Kazimir Malevich and his work, announces its grant competition for 2008.

In the belief that Malevich was a pioneer of modern art, and should be recognized for his key contributions to the history of Modernism, the Society awards grants to encourage research, writing, publishing, and other activities relating to his history and memory.

The Society welcomes applications from scholars of any nationality. PhD candidates whose dissertation topics have been accepted by their institutions may apply for support after completing at least one year of dissertation research.

Proposed projects should increase the understanding of Malevich and his work, or augment historical, biographical, or artistic information about Malevich and/or his artistic legacy. The Society also supports translations and the publication of relevant texts.

Application forms and instructions may be requested by telephone at 1-718-980-1805, by e-mail at malevichsociety@hotmail.com, or may be downloaded from the web-site: www.malevichsociety.org.

Deadline: September 30, 2008
