Call for Session Proposals

The International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) seeks proposals for sessions to be held under the organization's sponsorship at the 2009 International Medieval Congress in Leeds and at the 2010 Annual Conference of the College Art Association (CAA), to be held in Chicago.

1) Call for Sponsored Session Proposals

International Medieval Congress at Leeds, 13-16 July 2009

The International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) seeks proposals for sessions to be held under the organization's sponsorship at next year's International Medieval Congress in Leeds (UK). The theme of the conference is "Heresy and Orthodoxy," and sessions addressing that theme are particularly encouraged, but the conference organizers note that they welcome sessions on any medieval topic. The ICMA welcomes session proposals in all fields of medieval art history, broadly construed.

Both junior and senior scholars are invited to apply. The guidelines of the Congress dictate that a session proposal must include a 100 word abstract of the proposed session theme, the name of the moderator, and the names of all of the speakers, along with their paper titles.

Further information about the conference and its rules can be found at the conference website:

http://www.leeds.ac.uk/ims/imc/imc2009_call.html.

The deadline for proposals for ICMA sponsorship is 15 August 2008. Session organizers and speakers must be members of the ICMA at the time of the conference.
