

O. Neurath – Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (4 positions)

Hadwig Kraeutler

[4 positions]

#####

A: Reference number 09-09-01 Job Advertisement

Type of Position Target group

Research position Graduates

Title

Research scientist position in museum related interdisciplinary research project ,OTTO NEURATH: Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (1923-1934)'

Institution/Project

The Österreichische Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum in Vienna/Austria, the follower institution of the museum which Otto Neurath founded and directed in the ,Red Vienna', is preparing a research project with an interdisciplinary and international scope (evidence of, description, evaluation of the diverse communication-settings of Neurath's historical museum- and exhibition work; digitization and publication in a user-oriented Internet portal).

Position

Graduate scientist position in research team; with specialisation museology, museum history and science communication (20 hrs/week);

Project term: start autumn 2009, duration 36 months;

Position to be filled from autumn 2009; expected duration 36 months; venue: Vienna/Austria;

Payment according to scheme of the FWF (www.fwf.ac.at/).

Responsibilities

Candidates will carry out their primary research work independently within the scope of the research team's interest (research and interpretation of materials in museums, archives, libraries). Take part in the coordination of the discussion and evaluation of strategies; take part in seminars and expert meetings (preparation, documentation and securing of results). Participate in building up the museological and interdisciplinary project-infra structure;

Requirements

Graduates with a degree in history or museology and/or a strong background in these fields as well as in the interdisciplinary field of science communication; experience and interest in science-organisation; positive approach to assisting in organizational and office work; team-competencies, ICT- and very good communication skills (EN, GE)

Application procedure (deadline etc.)

Application closes December 17, 2008

This is an equal opportunity job opening, i.e. applications of females and members of minority with the relevant qualifications are strongly welcomed. For reasons of cost, your documents will not be returned. Send copies only, please. Your written application (reference number 09-09-01) should include the usual documents, details of training and relevant achievements, contact details for two references, and should be sent to:

Österreichisches Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum
Projekt 09 09, Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler
Vogelsanggasse 36, A-1050 Wien/Vienna, Austria

Contact

Further information concerning this position:

Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler; Email: hadwig.kraeutler@chello.at
Tel. +43.1.79 557-120 or mobile +43
(0) 676 97 09 660

#####

B: Reference number 09-09-02 Job Advertisement

Type of Position Target group

Research position Graduates

Title

Research scientist position (political sciences, history, social sciences) in museum related interdisciplinary research project ,OTTO NEURATH: Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (1923-1934)'

Institution/Project

The Österreichische Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum in Vienna/Austria, the follower institution of the museum which Otto Neurath founded and directed in the ,Red Vienna', is preparing a research project with an interdisciplinary and international scope (evidence of, description, evaluation of the diverse communication-settings of Neurath's historical museum- and exhibition work; digitization and publication in a user-oriented Internet portal).

Position

Graduate scientist; position as historian, political or social scientist in interdisciplinary research team; with specialisation history and science communication (10 hrs/week);

Project term: start autumn 2009, duration 36 months;

Position to be filled from autumn 2009; expected duration 24 months; venue: Vienna/Austria;

Payment according to scheme of the FWF (www.fwf.ac.at/).

Responsibilities

Candidates will carry out their primary research work independently within the scope of the research team's interest. Discuss and evaluate findings and historical evidence from the viewpoint of contemporary historian, political or social scientist; Participate in seminars and expert meetings (preparation, documentation and securing of results).

Requirements

Graduates with a degree in history, political or social science as well as an interest in the interdisciplinary field of science communication; broad background knowledge of history of the interwar years; experience and interest in science-organisation; positive approach to work in inter- and cross-disciplinary structures; team-competencies, ICT- and good communication skills (EN, GE)

Application procedure (deadline etc.)

Application closes December 17, 2008

This is an equal opportunity job opening, i.e. applications of females and members of minority with the relevant qualifications are strongly welcomed. For reasons of cost, your documents will not be returned. Send copies only, please. Your written application (reference number 09-09-02) should include the usual documents, details of training and relevant achievements, contact details for two references, and should be sent to:

Österreichisches Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum
Projekt 09 09, Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler
Vogelsanggasse 36, A-1050 Wien/Vienna, Austria

Contact

Further information concerning this position:

Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler; Email: hadwig.kraeutler@chello.at
Tel. +43.1.79 557-120 or mobile +43
(0) 676 97 09 660

#####

C: Reference number 09-09-03 Job Advertisement

Type of Position Target group

Research and organisational position Graduates

Title

Scientific project assistant (project management and co-ordination) in museum related interdisciplinary research project 'OTTO NEURATH: Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (1923-1934)'

Institution/Project

The Österreichische Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum in Vienna/Austria, the follower institution of the museum which Otto Neurath founded and directed in the 'Red Vienna', is preparing a research project with an interdisciplinary and international scope (evidence of, description, evaluation of the diverse communication-settings of Neurath's historical museum- and exhibition work; digitization and publication in a user-oriented Internet portal).

Position

Project management; outward relations and co-ordination of communication and meetings of an interdisciplinary research team within an international scientific context (10 hrs/week);

Project term: start autumn 2009, duration 36 months;

Position to be filled from 2010; expected duration 12 months; venue:

Vienna/Austria;

Payment according to scheme of the FWF (www.fwf.ac.at/).

Responsibilities

Candidates will assist the project leader in the management of an interdisciplinary project; carry out preparation, organization, documentation and dissemination of research results. Participate in seminars and expert meetings (preparation, documentation and securing of results).

Requirements

Graduates with a degree in history, as well as a keen interest/preferably experience in organizing interdisciplinary scientific work and/or communication-management; independence in project-work organization and administration are expected; positive approach to work in inter- and cross-disciplinary structures; team-competencies, ICT- and good communication skills (EN, GE)

Application procedure (deadline etc.)

Application closes December 17, 2008

This is an equal opportunity job opening, i.e. applications of females and/or members of minority with the relevant qualifications are strongly welcomed. For reasons of cost, your documents will not be returned. Send copies only, please. Your written application (reference number 09-09-03) should include the usual documents, details of training and relevant achievements, contact details for two references, and should be sent to:

Österreichisches Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum
Projekt 09 09, Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler
Vogelsangasse 36, A-1050 Wien/Vienna, Austria

Contact

Further information concerning this position:

Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler; Email: hadwig.kraeutler@chello.at
Tel. +43.1.79 557-120 or mobile +43
(0) 676 97 09 660

#####

D: Reference number 09-09-04 Job Advertisement

Type of Position Target group

Technical position Graduates

Title

Position responsible for ICT infrastructure and publication within museum related interdisciplinary research project ‚OTTO NEURATH: Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (1923-1934)‘

Institution/Project

The Österreichische Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum in Vienna/Austria, the follower institution of the museum which Otto Neurath founded and directed in the ‚Red Vienna‘, is preparing a research project with an interdisciplinary and international scope (evidence of, description, evaluation of the diverse communication-settings of Neurath’s historical museum- and exhibition work; digitization and publication in a user-oriented Internet portal).

Position

Technical position in research project-team (10 hrs/week);

Project term: start autumn 2009, duration 36 months;

Position to be filled from 2010; expected duration 18 months; venue: Vienna/Austria;

Payment according to scheme of the FWF (www.fwf.ac.at/).

Responsibilities

Candidates will develop the structure, organization and maintenance of the digitization of research work and its outcomes, resulting in an internationally coordinated user-oriented internet portal;

Requirements

Graduates with a degree from a technical college or university and relevant training and experience in the field of ICT, programming of data-banks; independent work with ‚open-source operating systems‘ and internet applications; positive approach to assisting in interdisciplinary and international work-relations; team-competencies, excellent ICT- and good communication skills (EN, GE)

Application procedure (deadline etc.)

Application closes December 17, 2008

This is an equal opportunity job opening, i.e. applications of females and members of minority with the relevant qualifications are strongly welcomed. For reasons of cost, your documents will not be returned. Send copies only, please. Your written application (reference number 09-09-04) should include the usual documents, details of training and relevant achievements, contact details for two references, and should be sent to:

Österreichisches Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsmuseum
Projekt 09 09, Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler
Vogelsanggasse 36, A-1050 Wien/Vienna, Austria

Contact

Further information concerning this position:

Mag. Dr. Hadwig Kraeutler; Email: hadwig.kraeutler@chello.at
Tel. +43.1.79 557-120 or mobile +43
(0) 676 97 09 660

Reference:

JOB: O. Neurath - Museums- und Ausstellungspraxis in Wien (4 positions). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 11, 2008
(accessed Jan 20, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/31059>>.