

6th Annual Grad Stud Symposium in 19th-Century Art (New York, 27 Mar 09)

Petra T Chu

The Sixth Annual Graduate Student Symposium in Nineteenth-Century Art will be held on Friday, March 27, 2009, at the CUNY Graduate Center, 365 Fifth Avenue, New York, from 10 AM to 4 PM.

The symposium is co-sponsored by the Association of Historians of Nineteenth-Century Art (AHNCA), the Graduate Program in Art History of the City University of New York, and the Art History Program of Seton Hall University.

Graduate students are invited to submit proposals for 20-minute papers on topics in the history of art and visual culture of the long nineteenth-century (1789-1914). Proposals that give evidence of new scholarship and originality of approach are especially encouraged.

Please send the following materials, as e-mail attachments, to the selection committee c/o Chupetra@shu.edu.

brief c.v. (2-page maximum) cover sheet with name, school, title of paper, and name of faculty adviser on the proposed paper
2-page abstract

To be considered, proposals must be received by Monday, February 9, 2009. Invitations to participate will be sent out by email before February 23, 2008.

For additional information, please e-mail Petra Chu at chupetra@shu.edu or Patricia Mainardi at pmainardi@gc.cuny.edu.
