The annual SAVAH conference will be hosted by the Department of Visual Arts, University of Pretoria, from 10 - 11 July 2009. The theme of the conference is:

THE POLITICS OF CHANGE: Looking backwards and forwards

The South African Visual Art Historians is holding its 25th annual conference in 2009. It therefore seems fitting to reflect on the history of the visual arts within (South) Africa and to engage with the diverse and changing contexts of art (history) and visual culture in a critical manner. This discourse necessarily involves the dialectic of local and global politics that forms the backdrop to image making in (South) Africa. Through this conference, we hope to sketch a historical overview of the ontology and practice of art (history) and visual culture and to represent with some transparency the polemics of documenting history and theorising change in a global landscape.

Submissions are invited from Visual Culture Studies, Cultural Studies, Cultural History, Art History, Tourism and Leisure Studies, Gender Studies, Cultural Geography, Film Studies, Philosophy, Visual Arts and Architecture, or any other fields that are involved with the interrogation of the themes indicated below.

The following themes/questions/issues in some way or another engage with the politics of change in terms of art (history) and visual culture.
