Subject: Resources in Art History for Graduate Students

The Web site "Resources in Art History for Graduate Students" :

(<http://www.efn.org/~acd/resources.html>)

lists opportunities and information for graduate students in art history, visual arts, and related areas of the humanities. These include fellowships, grants, internships, foreign study opportunities and extensive listings of CFPs often directed at graduate students but also many open to anyone at that level or above.

Listings are usually in English but include those from all over the world, and are not limited by citizenship. Please take a look and make any suggestions to the editor. Thank you.

Cimelia Photographica - An Online Exhibition by the Photo Library of the Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz

<http://expo.khi.fi.it>: With "Cimelia

Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz presents a selection from its historical holdings for the first time.

With "Cimelia Photographica", the photo library inaugurates a focus of research devoted to both photo-historical questions and questions on the history of science. Its aim is to encourage research of photography as both a tool of art history and an object of artistic, cultural and academic interest. The online exhibition presents some of the material that has been recorded and digitalised for this purpose.

The photographs in the exhibition can also be viewed in the digital photo library at www.khi.fotothek.org.

The next online exhibition opens on 22 June 2009 and is devoted to the Romanesque capitals in the cloister of the Cathedral of Monreale in Sicily.

Cimelia Photographica - Una mostra online del Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz

<http://expo.khi.fi.it> con "Cimelia Photographica" la Fototeca del Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz presenta per la prima volta una selezione del suo patrimonio storico.

Con "Cimelia Photographica" la Fototeca inaugura un settore tematico di ricerca dedicato a questioni sia di storia della fotografia, sia di storia della scienza e delle discipline. Con questo si intendono promuovere gli studi sulla fotografia non solo come strumento della storia dell'arte, ma anche come oggetto esso stesso di indagini inerenti alla storia dell'arte, della cultura e della scienza. La mostra online presenta in alcune sezioni una parte del materiale raccolto e digitalizzato a questo scopo.

Le foto della mostra possono essere consultate anche tramite la Fototeca Digitale: www.khi.fotothek.org.

La prossima mostra online verrà inaugurata il 22 giugno 2009 e sarà dedicata ai capitelli romanici nel chiostro del Duomo di Monreale in Sicilia.

Cimelia Photographica - Eine Online-Ausstellung der Photothek des Kunsthistorischen Instituts in Florenz

<http://expo.khi.fi.it> : mit "Cimelia Photographica" präsentiert die Photothek des Kunsthistorischen Instituts in Florenz erstmals eine Auswahl aus ihrem historischen Bestand.

Die Photothek eröffnet mit "Cimelia Photographica" einen Forschungsschwerpunkt, der sich sowohl fotohistorischen wie wissenschaftsgeschichtlichen Fragestellungen widmet. Mit ihm soll die Erforschung der Fotografie als Werkzeug der Kunstgeschichte aber auch als Gegenstand kunst-, kultur- und wissenschaftsgeschichtlicher Fragestellungen gefördert werden. Die gleichnamige Online-Ausstellung stellt einen Teil des dazu erfassten und digitalisierten Materials in einzelnen Sektionen vor.

Die Fotos der Ausstellung sind auch über die Digitale Fotothek www.khi.fotothek.org recherchierbar.

Die nächste Online-Ausstellung wird am 22. Juni 2009 eröffnet und ist den romanischen Kapitellen im Kreuzgang des Domes von Monreale auf Sizilien gewidmet.
