Lecturer in Art History (Modern art - 1848 to the present day)

School of Art History

£36,532 - £44,930 pa

We are seeking to appoint a Lecturer in Art History whose research interests lie in the area of Western art c. 1848 to the present day.

You should already have or be close to completing a PhD. You should be able to provide evidence of your research abilities in the form of publications and have a programme of on-going research that will be suitable for inclusion in the School's submission to the next research assessment exercise in 2013.

You will be expected to provide attractive, research-led upper-level courses on aspects of Modern art not currently offered by the School. In addition you will give large-group lectures in the second-year survey modules, 'The History and Theory of European Art, Architecture and Design 1800-1906' and 'The International Modern Movement 1905-1990', and will undertake tutorial teaching in these courses. Working with postgraduates, both teaching classes and supervising research, will also be a vital part of your role.

Informal enquiries to Dr Brendan Cassidy, Acting Head, via email (bfc1@st-andrews.ac.uk) or by phone, 01334 462370 or 462399.

Please quote ref: JC208/09 Closing date: 27 April 2009

Application forms and further particulars are available from Human Resources, University of St Andrews, College Gate, North Street, St Andrews, Fife KY16 9AJ, (tel: 01334 462571, by fax 01334 462570 or by e-mail Jobline@st-andrews.ac.uk).
