

Art History Open Session: Twentieth-Century Art (CAA Chicago 2010)

John Klein

(CAA Chicago 2010)

Call for Papers:

College Art Association Annual Conference, Chicago, February 10-13, 2010

Art History Open Session: Twentieth-Century Art

Proposals on any aspect of art production or reception from throughout the twentieth century are welcome. I encourage papers that treat intersections of European-American traditions with art practices in Africa, Asia, Latin America, native North America, the Pacific region and elsewhere in the development of global modernisms.

John Klein

Department of Art History and Archaeology

Washington University

Campus Box 1189, One Brookings Drive

Saint Louis, Missouri 63130-4899

Please send cover letter, completed session participation proposal form, 1-2 page abstract and c.v. with complete contact information to the address above, or by email to: jrklein@wustl.edu

Deadline: Friday, May 8, 2009

Please refer to the CAA guidelines for submission of proposals:

<http://www.collegeart.org/pdf/2010CallforParticipation.pdf>

Reference:

CFP: Art History Open Session: Twentieth-Century Art (CAA Chicago 2010). In: ArtHist.net, Apr 30, 2009 (accessed Sep 15, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/31481>>.