

Fulbright Scholar Opportunities in Art History

Katherine Matheson

Fulbright Scholar Program for US Faculty and Professionals for 2010-2011 is open

The Fulbright Scholar Program offers 18 awards in lecturing, research or combined lecturing/research in art history, including four Fulbright Distinguished Chairs. Even better, faculty and professionals in art history also can apply for one of the 144 "All Discipline" awards open to all fields.

What does Fulbright offer in art history? Here are a few of the awards for 2010-2011:

Middle East and North Africa – Award #0417 – Middle East and North Africa Regional Research Program - 3-9 months in two or more countries

Philippines – Award #0175 – study of the United States

Ukraine – Award #0399 – cultural resource management, art conservation, museum studies

The application deadline is August 1, 2009. U.S. citizenship is required. For a full, detailed listing of all Fulbright programs and other eligibility requirements visit our website at www.cies.org, or send a request for materials to scholars@cies.iie.org.
