Grants of up to £2000 will be awarded from the Francis Haskell Memorial Fund each year to enable scholars to spend time in libraries or archives carrying out advanced research in the history of western art. Preference may be given to candidates in the early stages of their careers; to subjects related to the commissioning, collecting or interpretation of works of art made before 1914; and to research carried out outside the applicant's country of residence. Scholars from any country may apply. An additional award may be made by the Trustees of The Burlington Magazine Foundation in conjunction with the Francis Haskell Trustees.

Applications, including a two-page proposal, a C.V. and a budget, should be sent by email to carolineelam@yahoo.co.uk - please label all attachments with surname of applicant - or by post to Caroline Elam, 531 Caledonian Road, London N7 9RH, by 15th May 2009. There is no application form. Applicants should ask two referees to write separately to the same address by the same deadline in support of their proposals. Awards will be made by 1st July 2009.
