

Celebrating the Centrum at the Rubenianum: 50 years on (Antwerp, 22 Jan 10)

(Antwerp, 22 Jan 10)

CELEBRATING THE CENTRUM AT THE RUBENIANUM: 50 YEARS ON

The Centrum voor de Vlaamse Kunst van de 16e en de 17e Eeuw was founded in 1959 to promote the study of Flemish art of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Based at the Rubenianum in Antwerp, the Centrum will mark its 50th anniversary with a symposium on 22 January 2010. A series of short lectures will explore the Centrum's achievements over the past five decades and outline its aims for the future. The occasion will also celebrate the publication of the latest volume of what is undoubtedly the Centrum's most prestigious project, the Corpus Rubenianum Ludwig Burchard.

Location: Rubenianum,
Kolveniersstraat, 20, 2000 Antwerp
Tel.: 0032-3-201 15 70

Preliminary Programme

Date: Friday, 22 January 2010

14.30 Carl Van de Velde:
History and Aims of the Centrum

14.50 Egbert Haverkamp Begeman
The Founding Fathers - A Personal View

15.10 Christopher White
The Corpus Rubenianum Ludwig Burchard and Rubens Scholarship

15.30 Coffee

16.15 Jeremy Wood
Rubens. Copies and Adaptations from Renaissance and Later Artists.
Italian Artists. CRLB, XXVI, I, 1-2 (Raphael and His School)

17.00 Arnout Balis
The Future of the Centrum

17.30 Reception with private view of the Willem Van Haecht exhibition
(Rubenshuis)

Reference:

CONF: Celebrating the Centrum at the Rubenianum: 50 years on (Antwerp, 22 Jan 10). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 22, 2009 (accessed Jun 6, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/31840>>.