Call for papers:

16th Annual Symposium, San Jose State University

The Art History Department at San Jose State University will host its 16th Annual Symposium on April 10, 2010. We are considering 20 minute papers from graduate and advanced undergraduate students on various aspects of art, architecture, and visual culture.

You will be asked to submit a 250-word abstract, a maximum 10-page paper, images, and a brief letter from a sponsoring faculty member.

For more information and an application form, please contact Dara Feuerberg, President of the Art History Association, at dfeuerberg@gmail.com.

Deadline for papers is February 1, 2010.
