Call for Participation: Visual Culture Studies, American Studies Association, San Antonio, Texas Nov. 18-21, 2010.

The Visual Culture Caucus of the American Studies Association (ASA) invites individuals and groups to participate in the 2010 ASA meeting, November 18-21 in San Antonio, Texas. For proposals/abstracts sent by January 15th, The Programming Committee of the caucus can offer critical feedback on session proposals at any stage of their development and facilitate networking among scholars who are looking for session participants, chairs, or commentators. The committee will subsequently select complete session(s) from those accepted by ASA for official caucus sponsorship.

Session proposals should explore historical, theoretical, and/or methodological issues in American visual culture, which includes (but is not limited to) prints, photography, painting, sculpture, comics/graphic novels, illustrated books, film, television, and digital media. They must address the 2010 meeting theme, "Crisis, Chains, and Change: American Studies for the 21st Century" (see http://www.theasa.net/annual_meeting/page/submitting_a_proposal/).

We encourage scholars to submit their proposals for meeting participation to our new "Works in Progress" webpage, accessible through our caucus blog (http://www.theasa.net/caucus_visual/). Any ASA member may join the caucus by clicking on the registration column on the blog homepage (requires ASA username and password). Caucus organizers will be posting ideas for events to the "Works in Progress" page in the coming weeks; these include sessions and tours at several museums in San Antonio. Individuals interested in participating in the 2010 annual meeting may also contact Philip Nel and Mary Zundo, co-chairs of the Visual Culture Caucus Programming Committee, at philnel@ksu.edu and maryzundo@aol.com
