

Curating New Media Art, or Photography (Univ of Sunderland)

Beryl Graham

AHRC POSTGRADUATE STUDENTSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

For full details see <http://nuweb.northumbria.ac.uk/nebgb/>

Northumbria and Sunderland Universities operate a collaborative AHRC Block Grant Partnership to support quality research and professional training. Studentships are available for uptake from September/October 2010 including the following areas:

Doctoral Studentships

D1 Applied Arts and Crafts (Glass and Ceramics)

D2 Fine Art (Curating New Media Art, or Photography)

Awards cover stipend and fees subject to eligibility criteria, see the AHRC Guide to Student Eligibility
http://www.ahrc.ac.uk/FundingOpportunities/Documents/Guide_to_Student_Eligibility.pdf

Applications are invited electronically to applications@northeastbgp.org on the relevant form by no later than 12.00 midday on Thursday 24 March 2010. For details of each studentship opportunity and relevant form, see web links above.

Beryl Graham, Professor of New Media Art
Faculty of Arts, Design, and Media,
University of Sunderland
Ashburne House, Ryhope Road
Sunderland
SR2 7EE
Email: beryl.graham@sunderland.ac.uk

CRUMB web resource for new media art curators
<http://www.crumbweb.org>

Reference:

STIP: Curating New Media Art, or Photography (Univ of Sunderland). In: ArtHist.net, Feb 4, 2010 (accessed Jul 7, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/32296>>.