Postgraduate Workshop
Postcolonising the Medieval Image
University of Leeds, 8-9 July 2010

As part of the Research Network "Postcolonising the Medieval Image", supported by the Arts and Humanities Research Council, we now invite postgraduate participants to join us for 2 days of keynote lecture, presentations, seminars, discussions, and lectures.

MA students, Ph.D. students and postdocs are invited to informally present their research projects for discussion. Any project that may be relevant to the use of postcolonial questions in relation to medieval art or medievalism will be welcome. For information regarding our research agenda and further details as they are announced see our website:

<http://post-col-med.leeds.ac.uk/>

If you wish to present your work at the workshop, please get in touch before the 23rd April.

* We have Student Bursaries available for this event.

Please contact Dr Hannay, our administrator, if you are interested.

Other upcoming events organised by the network:

15-17 Apr 2010 Association of Art Historians Annual Conference in Glasgow:
