The School of Divinity, History and Philosophy is seeking to appoint a qualified candidate to a 1.0 FTE Teaching Fellowship in the History of European Art, 1400-1800 in order to provide teaching coverage for members of staff who are to be away on research leave during the coming academic year (2010/11). The successful candidate will teach and contribute discrete lectures and tutorials to a range of undergraduate courses (sub-honours and honours) and to teach postgraduate. He or she will also contribute generally to the life and work of the unit within the School.

The appointment will be made at the rank of Teaching Fellow, with placement at an appropriate point on the Grade 6 scale (£29,853 - £35,646 per annum).

Should you require a visa to undertake paid employment in the UK, you will be required to fulfil the minimum points criteria to be granted a Certificate of Sponsorship and Tier 2 visa. As appropriate, at the time an offer of appointment is made you will be asked to demonstrate that you fulfil the criteria in respect of financial maintenance and competency in English. Please do not hesitate to contact Moira Falconer, HR Adviser, for further information on this.
