CALL FOR PAPERS

OHIO ACADEMY OF HISTORY
ANNUAL MEETING

DENISON UNIVERSITY
GRANVILLE, OHIO
8-9 APRIL, 2011

The Ohio Academy of History seeks papers from scholars in all fields of history, including World, Native American, Latin American, African, Asian, European, American, Middle Eastern, Rural, Gender, Religious, Cultural, Political, Economic, etc. Papers may deal with subjects in any area or time period. Those focusing on historiography, methodology, pedagogy, and public history are also welcome. Proposals may consist of individual papers or sessions organized around a common theme. The Academy welcomes discussion panels. Sessions generally include three papers (20 minutes each), a chair, and a commentator. The best papers will be refereed for publication in the Academy's Proceedings.

Proposals should include:

- a title
- a 150-word abstract of each paper
- a short biography, resume, or curriculum vita of each participant (less than three pages, please)
- relevant telephone numbers
- e-mail and mailing addresses

Historians interested in serving as session chairs/commentators are encouraged to contact the Program Committee chair below with information about their area(s) of expertise.

Proposals should be submitted by 1 November 2010 to
