

Prof History of Architecture & Urbanism (Berlin)

Full Professor for the History of Architecture and Urbanism (W3)

The Institute of Art and Visual History at the Humboldt-Universität of Berlin is seeking to appoint an experienced scholar in the history of architecture and urbanism to a full professorship, commencing on 1 October 2011 (or an alternative date to be agreed upon).

The successful candidate should be interested in engaging current discourses in the study of culture and theory, have experience with interdisciplinary inquiry, and demonstrate the willingness to work with the other subject fields at the Institute as well as with other academic institutions in Berlin and Brandenburg. The applicant should show a particular commitment to teaching, academic service, and research initiatives within the university.

International candidates are especially encouraged to apply. The Humboldt University is making a sustained effort to enhance the number of its female academics and encourages qualified women to apply. Equally qualified disabled applicants will receive preferential treatment.

Deadline: Application materials should be postmarked no later than December 10, 2010.

Please send cover letter, c.v. including the names of three recommenders, and select publications, quoting reference PR/020/10 to
