

Paris Summer Program (Paris, 29 Jun–9 Aug 11)

Lauren Weingarden

Lauren Weingarden will be directing and teaching a 6-week program (June 29-Aug 9, 2011) - Paris: The Artistic Avant-garde and the Museums of Paris - two joint classes for undergraduate or graduate credit through Florida State University's International Programs.

The classroom is the City of Light itself, with on-site lectures and discussions in such major museums as the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, and the Centre Georges Pompidou. Other key locations include the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, and the Musée Picasso, and excursions to Chartres, Versailles, and Giverny.

Please forward to students who may be interested

<http://international.fsu.edu/Types/College/France/Avant-garde.aspx>

Reference:

ANN: Paris Summer Program (Paris, 29 Jun-9 Aug 11). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 8, 2010 (accessed Oct 20, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/33183>>.