

John Carter Brown Fellowship

Starr Center

The C.V. Starr Center
Fellowships at Washington College

The C.V. Starr Center
for the Study of the American Experience invites applications for its fulltime residential fellowships.

Details:

The Hodson Trust - John Carter Brown Fellowship supports academics, independent scholars, writers, filmmakers, novelists and artists working on significant projects relating to the literature, history, culture, or art of the Americas before 1830.

Fellowship

Award: $20,000 plus housing and university privileges. Duration: two months of research in Providence, RI (September-May) and two months of writing in Chestertown, Md. (June-August). Residence: In Providence, a private room in the John Carter Brown Library's Fellows' Residence; in Chestertown, exclusive occupancy of a restored circa-1735 house. Work space: In Providence, space in the John Carter Brown Library; in Chestertown, a private office in the circa-1745 waterfront Custom House, home of the C.V. Starr Center for the Study of the American Experience

Deadline for 2011-12: March 15, 2011.

Further information and criteria: <http://hodsonbrown.washcoll.edu>

Contact: Jill Oglie Titus, associate director, jtitus2@washcoll.edu

Reference:

STIP: John Carter Brown Fellowship. In: ArtHist.net, Nov 7, 2010 (accessed Oct 19, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/33210>>.