

New Art-Historical Resource on the Web

ArtHist.net Redaktion

French paintings living resource (www.nelson-atkins.org/fpc)

From: Meghan Gray (mgray@nelson-atkins.org)

Subject: French paintings living resource

The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art in Kansas City, MO, recently launched a new art historical resource about its collection of French paintings and pastels. It will feature 106 French paintings and pastels, including the 29 Impressionist and Post-Impressionist masterpieces from the Marion and Henry Bloch Collection given to the museum in 2015. This living document can be found on the museum's website, www.nelson-atkins.org/fpc, where high-resolution images and rich historical context about each painting are freely accessible to all. The catalogue was released with four paintings, an essay on the history of collecting, and a fun timeline that highlights significant historic events in Kansas City and at the museum. Each month thereafter, we will add more paintings, sharing new insights and discoveries.

Reference:

WWW: New Art-Historical Resource on the Web. In: ArtHist.net, Mar 8, 2021 (accessed Jan 6, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/33538>>.