Subject: CFP: TIAMSA Sessions at CAA (Chicago, 16-19 Feb 22)

TIAMSA - The International Art Market Studies Association (artmarketstudies.org) invites colleagues to submit proposals for chairing its two sessions (the 1.5-hour academic session or the 1-hour seminar) at the 2022 College Art Association (CAA) conference to be held in Chicago, 16-19 February, 2022.

In line with our previous sessions at CAA, we do not impose any restrictions on the theme or approach of our sessions except that they must be of relevance to art market studies. As the CAA conference provides a forum of wide ranging diversity, we particularly welcome applications proposing a more experimental approach or format. The selected proposals will usually be followed by calls for papers to be distributed through the usual networks, but we are open to alternative approaches.

If you would like to submit a proposal, please send us a title, a very brief CV and a short abstract (3-4 sentences) outlining your idea by 11 April 2021 to inna.schill@artmarketstudies.org.

The TIAMSA Board will then select the most promising proposals, bearing in mind not only academic excellence but also their potential interest to our members and visitors of the conference.

Applicants will be informed of the board's decision in the second half of April 2021. Unfortunately, we will not be able to provide travel grants.

Please also note that CAA requires participants of the academic session to pay the normal conference fee. All applicants have to be TIAMSA members (for more information on TIAMSA and membership please visit artmarketstudies.org).
