Webinar-Series: Imagining the Modern City (online, 9 Nov 21-11 Jan 22)

online / Dutch-Belgian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies / De Werkgroep 18e Eeuw, 09.11.2021–11.01.2022
www.18e-eeuw.nl

Devin Vartija

The Dutch-Belgian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is pleased to announce our new series of webinars for this fall/winter: Imagining the Modern City!

Every second Tuesday of the month, 17u-18u (via Zoom)

9/11 City in revolution: Antwerp in the French Period, drawn by Pierre Goetsbloets (1794-1797) - in Dutch

-> Brecht Deseure (King's College London) will take you to Antwerp in the time of liberté, égalité, fraternité.

14/12 Hogarth and Europe. How Hogarth and other artists throughout Europe captured the modernity of the 18th century – in English

-> Conservator Alice Insley (Tate Britain) will give a virtual tour through the exhibition Hogarth and Europe, on display at the Tate Britain in London (3 November 2021-20 March 2022).

11/01 Urban Life in Movement: Gender and Mobility in Early Modern Amsterdam – in Dutch

-> Bob Pierik (Universiteit van Amsterdam en Uppsala University, Zweden) will speak about his doctoral research on gender and street life in 18th-century Amsterdam.

More information and to register for free: www.18e-eeuw.nl

Quellennachweis:
ANN: Webinar-Series: Imagining the Modern City (online, 9 Nov 21-11 Jan 22). In: ArtHist.net, 04.11.2021. Letzter Zugriff 01.11.2026. <https://arthist.net/archive/35238>.