Bärbel Küster

Looking Forward, Looking Back - A Symposium Organised by the International Research Group MAM

The symposium aims to launch international research about itinerant artists who travelled between various African and German-speaking countries from the 1950s to the 1970s. It seeks to collate and analyse multiple transcultural exchanges between artists, institutions and other agents in the field of visual arts during the period of decolonisation and the Cold War. Looking forward/Looking back will address research and findings in the format of specific case studies. It will also discuss the broader theoretical frameworks of archives in a transmodern global world from art historical, artistic and curatorial perspectives.
