The University of Aberdeen is ranked in the top 20 in the UK in both the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2022 and the Guardian University Guide 2022. Globally, the University is consistently ranked among the top 200 universities in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings, and also ranks 12th in the UK and 57th globally in the latest Times Higher Education Impact Rankings.

The School is a research-intensive unit engaged in world-leading research and first-class education. Our ambition is to advance knowledge in our research and teaching fields and create a range of beneficial societal impacts. The incoming Head of School will work with leaders across our disciplines to advance this ambition.

The School is one of twelve in the University and is located in Old Aberdeen. By headcount the School comprises 67 academics, 10 administrative staff and over 300 PhD students. By full-time equivalent, we have around 997 students in total, 743 undergraduates, 193 PGR and 30 PGT. Candidates must hold a PhD in a relevant subject and be dynamic, collegial, and creative, with outstanding communication skills, and ambition to lead the School towards fulfilling the University's Aberdeen 2040 strategic aims. We welcome applicants with a background in any of the School's disciplines areas.

We embrace a diverse working environment. Applications from individuals from across all of the equality protected characteristics are encouraged.

The Head of School appointment is for five years in the first instance and is made subject to the usual terms and conditions of employment of the University. An additional honorarium payment for headship applies over and above the academic salary.

Online application forms are available at www.abdn.ac.uk/jobs.

Should you require a visa to undertake employment in the UK you will be required to fulfil the minimum points criteria to be granted a Certificate of Sponsorship under the requirements of the Skilled Worker visa. At the time an offer of appointment is made, you will be asked to demonstrate that you fulfil the criteria in respect of qualification and competency in English. For research and academic posts, we will consider eligibility under the Global Talent visa. Please do not hesitate to contact Mhairi McLean, Senior HR Partner, (e-mail: mhairi.mclean@abdn.ac.uk) for further information.
