Call for Predoctoral and Postdoctoral Fellowships at the Bibliotheca Hertziana – Max Planck Institute for Art History in Rome

The Bibliotheca Hertziana – Max Planck Institute for Art History in Rome offers Predoctoral and Postdoctoral Fellowships for the academic year 2022/23 in the department of Prof. Dr. Tristan Weddigen. Under the general theme of Art of the Modern Age in a Global Context, the department welcomes projects in — but not limited to — one of its core research areas: Rome Contemporary, Materiality and Mediality, Italy in a Global Context, Transnational History of Art History, and Digital Visual Studies. The department's website provides further information on these research areas. Candidates should propose a funding period of six to twelve months. Successful candidates will be expected to be part of a group of junior scholars related to one of the five topics and participate in the institute's activities.

Candidates should submit their application on the following website from June 21 to July 24, 2022, at 12 pm CEST: https://recruitment.biblhertz.it. Interviews will take place in August and the earliest appointment in September.

In addition to providing personal information on the application platform, the following must be uploaded as separate PDF files:

- a curriculum vitae
- a list of publications
- a description of the research project including a bibliography
- a research timeline
- contact information of two potential referees (no letters of recommendation)

The Max Planck Society is committed to equality and diversity in scientific fields and particularly welcomes applications from underrepresented groups.
