

Provenance Research in Action: People, Tools & Practices (London, 12–16 Jun 23)

London, Jun 12–16, 2023

Deadline: Mar 10, 2023

Barbara Furlotti, los angeles

Join a week-long, hands-on, workshop on provenance research and due diligence in the earth of the London art world. Run by the Society for the History of Collecting in partnership with some of the most relevant London-based museums, libraries and academic institutions, this workshop aims to introduce students and young professionals to the tools, good practices, and best methodologies involved in researching provenance for paintings, decorative arts, books, archives, etc. Small group workshops, run by professionals in the sector, have been designed to provide an effective method of teaching of the theoretical and practical aspects of provenance research today. Applicants should send a letter of motivation (no longer than 750 words) and a brief CV (no longer than 1 page) to barbara.furlotti@courtauld.ac.uk by 10 March 2023. The workshop does not provide travel, accommodation or food (unless specified in the programme). Cost for the participation in the whole workshop is £150.
