Dissonances. Re-interpreting and re-assessing difficult heritage - Keynote Sessions

We are pleased to share with you the Keynote Sessions of the LYNX Summer School: "Dissonances. Re-interpreting and re-assessing difficult heritage," which will take place at IMT School for Advanced Studies Lucca (Italy) on 13-14-15 July 2023.

The Summer School will bring together scholars and researchers to reflect on the re-interpretation of difficult heritage, by focusing on how critical and decolonial practices help in dealing with conflictual interpretations of spaces and cultural heritage. While the call for applications to participate in the Summer School is closed, MA students, PhD candidates, researchers, professors and professionals of the cultural sector or other interested participants are welcome to attend the Keynote Sessions.

To reserve a spot, interested participants should write an email to lynxsummerschool23@gmail.com by 25 June 2023. The attendance fee is 50 euro and not-refundable; payment details and practical information will be provided via email. It is possible to follow the lectures both online or in person, with limited capacity.
