

Sponsored Chinese art history panel at Association for Asian Studies 2024

Online / Seattle - Association for Asian Studies 2024 Annual Conference

Deadline: Oct 6, 2023

Michelle C. Wang, Georgetown University

The Association for Chinese Art History (ACAH) seeks submissions for one sponsored panel at the 2024 Association for Asian Studies Annual Conference (virtual: March 1, 2024; in-person: March 14-17, 2024). With support from the Bei Shan Tang Foundation, ACAH is pleased to provide funding to one virtual or in-person panel for which the majority of the papers (two out of three; three out of four) focus on Chinese art and architectural history and the visual cultures of global and diasporic Chinas, from any historical period.

Costs for conference registration and attendance will be reimbursed up to a maximum of USD$1500.00 for the panel. Participants on a virtual or in-person panel who register for the in-person conference may reimburse costs for participation at the in-person conference. Participants on a virtual panel who register for the virtual conference only may reimburse costs for the virtual conference.

To apply, please submit the following in one pdf file by October 6, 2023 to achineseearthhistory@gmail.com: (1) confirmation of panel acceptance, (2) panel and paper abstracts, (3) CVs of each panelist. Panel chairs will be notified by November 3, 2023 if their panel has been accepted for sponsorship. In addition to this open call for submissions, the ACAH board of directors is pleased to support a commissioned roundtable session, "Perspectives on Curating Chinese Art Today." Both ACAH-sponsored panels will be listed in the print conference program. For more information regarding ACAH, please visit: <https://acah.info/>.

Reference:

CFP: Sponsored Chinese art history panel at Association for Asian Studies 2024. In: ArtHist.net, Sep 24, 2023 (accessed May 12, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/40142>>.