Call for Applications: Fellowships in American Visual Culture at the William L. Clements Library.

The William L. Clements Library at the University of Michigan welcomes applications for 2024-2025 research fellowships. In addition to the existing slate of fellowship opportunities, the Clements is proud to offer three additional fellowships for the 2024-2025 cycle, which will support artists-in residence and projects utilizing the visual and graphics collections, including the library's significant collection of pre-1900 ephemera.

The Clements' holdings—books, manuscripts, pamphlets, maps, prints and views, newspapers, photographs, ephemera—are among the best in the world on almost any aspect of the American experience from 1492 through 1900, and support a diverse array of research projects.

Other strengths of the collections include: The Atlantic and Caribbean world, graphics and printed material, Great Lakes history, military history, gender and ethnicity, religion, the American Revolution, Native American history, slavery and antislavery, cartography, the Civil War, reform movements, travel and exploration, and others.

The Clements offers long term (four months), short term (one month), and week-long fellowships, as well as a digital fellowship with no residency requirement. Applications are due by January 15, 2024 for research to be undertaken between June 1, 2024-May 31, 2025.
