

Drawing Institute Fellowships, New York

The Morgan Library & Museum

Application deadline: Dec 3, 2023

Sarah Mallory

The Morgan Library & Museum invites applications for Drawing Institute fellowships for the 2024 - 2025 term. The application deadline is December 3, 2023. Please see the website for additional information.

Thaw Senior Fellow

A three-month fellowship awarded to a noted senior scholar or established museum professional.

Postdoctoral Fellow

A nine-month fellowship awarded to scholars in the first decade of their career following the completion of the Ph.D. or equivalent advanced degree.

Predoctoral Fellow

A nine-month fellowship awarded to an advanced graduate student, who has completed all course work and exams and is engaged in carrying out research leading to the completion of a Ph.D. dissertation in the history of art.

Morgan-Menil Fellow

A biennial fellowship awarded in collaboration with the Menil Collection in Houston. The fellowship is intended to foster studies of modern and contemporary drawings. The Morgan-Menil Fellow is hosted by both institutions.

All Fellows are invited to participate in the events of the Drawing Institute and take an active part in the intellectual life of the Morgan's departments of Drawings and Prints and Modern and Contemporary Drawings. Fellows will spend their time in residence at the Morgan Library & Museum with access to the Morgan's resources, including the collections of drawings and prints, the Thaw Conservation Center and the reference library. Fellows will be expected to present their research in the Fellows Colloquia at the conclusion of their fellowship.

Health insurance and Housing are not provided by the Morgan. For foreign applicants, non-financial assistance with procuring a visa is provided.

<https://www.themorgan.org/opportunities/fellowships>

Reference:

JOB: Drawing Institute Fellowships, New York. In: ArtHist.net, Nov 18, 2023 (accessed Jan 15, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/40643>>.