Rebecca Morland

We are delighted to announce that our 50th annual conference will be held in collaboration with the History of Art department at the University of Bristol. A key annual event, the conference is an opportunity to keep up to date with new research, hear leading keynotes, broaden networks and exchange ideas. The 2024 Annual Conference is open to all, members and non-members of the Association for Art History. Conference tickets are now available and include access to all sessions, keynotes, exhibitors, visits, professional programme events and networking opportunities.
