Professor Juliet Simpson, Coventry University, UK

Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Fellowships, Centre for Arts, Memory and Communities, Coventry University. CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST.

The Centre for Arts, Memory and Communities at Coventry University extends an invitation for expressions of interest from candidates wishing to apply for an EU Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Individual Fellowship in the Centre for Arts, Memory and Communities. We welcome expressions of interest in fields of Art History, History, Cultural Memory, Visual and Material Cultures, Text and Image Studies with a significant focus on aspects of hidden histories and cultural memory, trauma, displacement, museums/exhibitions, cultural heritage; recreating/inventing memory.

We advise that candidates check carefully the detailed guidance for the scheme to ensure you are eligible. Broadly, these are:

- You should have a PhD by the time of the deadline for applications (11 Sept 2024).
- You must have a maximum of eight years' experience in research, from the date of the award of their PhD degree.
- You must not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies, etc.) in the UK for more than 12 months in the 36 months immediately before the call deadline.

We encourage interested scholars to initiate contact with a potential supervisor as soon as possible for discussions and additional information.

A list of academic specialists in the Centre for Arts, Memory and Communities is found here <https://www.coventry.ac.uk/research/areas-of-research/centre-for-arts-memory-and-communities/our-team/>
