

Career Development Fellow in Visual Studies, Durham University

Sep 01, 2024

Application deadline: Jul 17, 2024

Simon Ward, Durham University

The School of Modern Languages and Cultures at Durham University seeks to appoint a talented individual to a fixed-term Career Development Fellowship to join the team delivering its innovative BA in Visual Arts and Film and MA in Visual Culture. Both these programmes are dedicated to interdisciplinarity and a global perspective, sharing a commitment to decolonializing approaches which are also being taken up elsewhere in the School.

We welcome applications from those with research and teaching interests in the broad field of the Visual Arts, and we are particularly eager to hear from applicants with a focus on Art History and with a track record of engaging with the cultural sector.
