

BAA Post-Graduate Conference (online, 28–29 Nov 24)

Online, Nov 28–29, 2024

Deadline: Aug 31, 2024

Dr Roisin Astell

The British Archaeological Association invites proposals by postgraduates and early career researchers in the field of medieval history of art, architecture, and archaeology. Papers can be on any aspect of the medieval period, from antiquity to the Later Middle Ages, across all geographical regions.

The BAA postgraduate conference offers an opportunity for postgraduate students and early career researchers at all levels from universities across the UK and abroad to present and discuss their research, and exchange ideas.

Proposals of around 250 words for a 20-minute paper, along with a CV, should be sent by 31st August 2024 to postgradconf@thebaa.org.

The conference will take place online 28-29th November 2024.

You can find more information at our website (<https://thebaa.org/>).

Reference:

CFP: BAA Post-Graduate Conference (online, 28-29 Nov 24). In: ArtHist.net, Jul 26, 2024 (accessed Sep 15, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/42435>>.