

Italian Academy Fellowship Program 2025–26

Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America, Columbia University, New York, NY, USA, Sep 1, 2025–Apr 30, 2026
Application deadline: Dec 2, 2024

Adelle Parsons

The Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America announces the Call for Applications for its 2025–26 Fellowship Program.

We invite applications for:

- up to four Weinberg Fellowships in Architectural History and Preservation
- up to two Gerda Henkel Foundation Fellowships in the History of Art
- one Alexander Bodini Fellowship in Developmental and Adolescent Psychiatry
- one Burke Fellowship in the Conservation of Cultural Heritage in Japan and Italy and we welcome proposals outside these precise categories as well.

Candidates—at the post-doctoral or faculty level—can apply from all countries. Fellows receive a stipend, travel allowance, health benefits, and an office in the Academy on the Columbia campus.

The Italian Academy, a global center at Columbia for cross-disciplinary research, has hosted hundreds of Fellows with innovative and ground-breaking projects from all around the world.

We offer

- a) a gross salary ranging from $7,000 up to $8,500/month (you may be required to pay tax on this; consult your accountant or financial advisor);
- b) a travel allowance to cover the airfare to & from New York;
- c) a one-time housing allowance;
- d) a portion of health-insurance costs.

Apply by December 2 for a Fellowship in 2025–26 by using the digital online form: <https://italianacademycolumbiauniversity.submittable.com/submit/3b24422f-e4db-45a1-b9d4-ccccae6e02d7/italian-academy-fellowship-call-for-applications-2025-2026>

For more information and to apply, please see our Fellowship Program webpage: <https://italianacademy.columbia.edu/content/fellowship-program>

Reference:

STIP: Italian Academy Fellowship Program 2025–26. In: ArtHist.net, Oct 9, 2024 (accessed Jun 8, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/42887>>.