

2 Art History Panels at AAS 2025 Conference (Columbus, 13–16 Mar 25)

Columbus, Ohio (US), Mar 13–16, 2025

Deadline: Nov 1, 2024

Michelle C. Wang, Georgetown University

Sponsored Chinese art history panels at Association for Asian Studies 2025 Annual Conference.

The Association for Chinese Art History (ACAH) seeks submissions for two sponsored panels at the 2025 Association for Asian Studies Annual Conference (Columbus, Ohio, March 13-16, 2025). With support from Bei Shan Tang Foundation, ACAH is pleased to provide funding to two panels for which the majority of the papers (two out of three; three out of four) focus on Chinese art and architectural history and the visual cultures of global and diasporic Chinas, from any historical period.

Costs for round trip conference travel, ground transportation, and lodging at the standard room rate will be reimbursed up to a maximum of USD$1500.00 for each panel.

To apply, please submit the following in one pdf file by November 1, 2024 to achineseearthhistory@gmail.com:

- (1) confirmation of panel acceptance.
- (2) panel and paper abstracts.
- (3) CVs of each panelist.

Panel chairs will be notified by December 9, 2024 if their panel has been accepted for sponsorship. For more information regarding ACAH, please visit: <https://acah.info/>.
