The Stirling Maxwell Centre Seminar Series warmly invites contributions to our Postgraduate Researcher roundtable on 28th November 2024 at 5pm, in-person at the University of Glasgow (with audience members joining online). The roundtable aims to allow Postgraduate Researchers of any affiliation to showcase their work-in-progress and facilitate discussions around Text/Image Storytelling.

Short presentations of 10 minutes are welcomed from Postgraduate Researchers. These may relate to any aspect of your current research within the field of Text/Image Studies, including image, photography, imagery and metaphor, illustration, comics, emblem studies, or other cognate Text/Image fields.

The concept of storytelling is rich in scope. Possible topics might include, but are not limited to, research on race, gender, sexuality, disability, class, climate emergency, the politics of storytelling and how we perceive events in the past, present, and future.

Please submit an anonymised 200-word abstract and a 100-word short bio as separate documents to Rachel.Eager@glasgow.ac.uk (Stirling Maxwell Centre Postgraduate Officer) by Wednesday 13th November 2024.

Acceptances confirmed by Monday 18th November 2024.
