

Assistant Professor, British Architecture in Global Context, Cambridge

Department of History of Art, University of Cambridge, Sep 01, 2025

Application deadline: Jan 30, 2025

Chish Malata

The Department of History of Art at the University of Cambridge is seeking applications for a permanent Assistant Professor in the History of British Architecture in its Global Contexts 1660-1900.

This specialism should be understood to extend not only to the traditions of Architecture in the United Kingdom, but also in the Commonwealth nations. The postholder will contribute to diversifying the curriculum in teaching and research on the imperial/post-imperial contexts of British Architecture. The successful candidate will be expected to take up appointment on 1 September 2025.

In order for applications to be considered applicants must upload:

- Covering letter, explaining the reasons for your application and how your knowledge, skills and experience match the requirements of the role you are applying for
- An EDI statement outlining what Equality, Diversity and Inclusion means to you
- A teaching statement, outlining your experience, interests, and approach to teaching problem-based design
- A research statement, outlining your plans for research, scholarship and grant capture over the next 5 years
- If available, two recently-published research articles or book chapters
- A Curriculum Vitae (CV), to include full details of educational qualifications and academic experience, a list of publications.
- Three references are required, and applicants should ask their referees to send their reports to references@csah.cam.ac.uk by the closing date

If you upload any additional documents which have not been requested, we will not be able to consider these as part of your application. The closing date for applications is midnight (GMT) on Thursday 30 January 2025 and interviews are expected to take place in March/April 2025, subject to change.

Informal enquiries are welcomed and should be directed to the Head of the Department of History of Art Professor Alexander Marr hod-hoart@aha.cam.ac.uk Enquiries about the application process may be made to the Schools HR team on sahhr@admin.cam.ac.uk.
