

The Lessons of Rome (Lyon, 14 Mar 25)

Lyon Museum of Fine Arts, Mar 14, 2025

Deadline: Jan 27, 2025

Benjamin Chavardès

The Lessons of Rome (8th edition).

The Lessons of Rome aim to propose a space for reflection for anyone who grasps Italy as an architectural, urban, and landscape research laboratory. Defining Italy as a laboratory involves analyzing contexts of urban policies but also as design experiences, theories, practices, legacies, mutations, and prospects. It means building knowledge and culture, learning and developing tools to conceive the present and to enrich contemporary practices.

The Lessons of Rome provide the opportunity to be kept up to date on current and upcoming research, to share existing and generate new knowledge and dialogues with Italy. Professionals, students, Phd candidates, researchers, and people from various academic disciplines, schools, and nationalities are welcome.

Submission procedures

Researchers wishing to contribute to this day are invited to send their proposal, including a title, an abstract (about 200 words) and a short biography, before January 27, 2025 to rome@lyon.archi.fr The official language of the day is French, but proposals and papers may also be submitted in English.
