

senior full time position with a focus on Modern Art History (Tel Aviv)

Tel Aviv University, Oct 01, 2013

Application deadline: Jan 20, 2013

Tamar Cholcman, Tel Aviv University

The Art History Department at Tel Aviv University seeks candidates for a senior full time position in the research track with a focus on Modern Art History

Beginning October 2013

Requirements:

PhD degree in Art History with a focus on the 19th and 20th century, including Israeli Art; research and publication record of international academic standard in these fields; teaching capabilities in Hebrew and English of graduate and undergraduate courses in these fields; supervision of advanced students; management skills.

Send:

CV & List of Publications

Recommendation letters from three senior researchers at academic institutions.

The recommendation letters are to be sent directly to the address below.

The position may lead to tenure.

The academic rank and terms of employment will be determined by the experience and skills of the candidate according to the University's regulations.

The appointment procedures are subject to Tel Aviv University Appointment Bylaws and to the approval of the appropriate academic authorities.

The University reserves the right not to appoint any candidate or to divide the position between two candidates.

Final date for application: January 20th 2013

Please send all the required documents to:

Prof. Hannah Naveh, Dean, The Faculty of Arts, Tel Aviv University, Tel Aviv 69978
deanarts@tauex.tau.ac.il

Reference:

JOB: senior full time position with a focus on Modern Art History (Tel Aviv). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 10, 2012
(accessed Apr 22, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/4352>>.