

8 Curatorial cataloguing fellowships, Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco

San Francisco, CA, Sep 02, 2025

Application deadline: Feb 14, 2025

Lauren Palmor

The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco is seeking 8 Curatorial Cataloguing Fellows. This fellowship program aims to support the Museums' strategic goal to significantly enhance the scope of information available about works of art in the Museums' collection, and make this information digitally accessible to a wider public. The two-year paid Fellowship program, onsite in San Francisco from September 2025-August 2027, is designed to provide an important professional development opportunity for eight emerging art museum professionals. We strongly encourage applicants from backgrounds historically underrepresented in the art museum field. This fellowship will advance participants' curatorial training through rigorous research and cataloguing experience.

A Fellow will be assigned to each of FAMSF's eight curatorial departments: Achenbach Foundation for Graphic Arts (works on paper); Arts of Africa, Oceania and the Americas; American Art; Ancient Art; Contemporary Art; European Decorative Arts and Sculpture; European Paintings; and Textile Arts. Fellows will be matched based on areas of interest and experience and will work directly with department curators, who will serve as supervisors and offer mentorship throughout the fellowship. Applicants may apply to more than one department.

Schedule: This 2 year, fixed-term Union position from September 2025-August 2027. The work-week is Monday - Friday, 8 hours a day, 40 hours per week onsite at the de Young and Legion of Honor Museums in San Francisco, CA.

Benefits: This is a Union position with a benefits package including medical, dental, vision, 401(k) for retirement, and paid time off. Relocation support may be available for successful candidates who are outside the Bay Area.

Pay: Fellows begin on Step 1 of the union wage scale, which is $27.00 per hour.

Application deadline: Friday, February 14, 2025 (9pm PST)

How to apply: Please submit your application online through the FAMSF Career Center following the link on our website: <https://www.famsf.org/about/work-with-us>
