

Art History Research Lectures (St Andrews, 12 Feb–16 Apr 25)

St Andrews, UK, Feb 12–Apr 16, 2025

Ruth Ezra

All are invited to attend the Art History Research Lectures of the School of Art History, University of St Andrews.

Talks begin at 4 p.m. in School III, St Salvator's Quad, North Street, St Andrews, with a wine reception to follow at 79 North Street. These are in-person events.

12 February

"The 'Dudley Madonna': Devotion, Design, Display"

Rachel Boyd, V&A South Kensington

26 February

"Art in Between: Eastern Christian Visual Culture in the Islamic and Western Christian Worlds"

Anthi Andronikou, University of Glasgow

2 April

"Ruskin After Turner"

Jeremy Melius, University of York

16 April

"Negotiating the Visible: Photography in Senegal"

Giulia Paoletti, University of Virginia

Reference:

ANN: Art History Research Lectures (St Andrews, 12 Feb-16 Apr 25). In: ArtHist.net, Feb 4, 2025 (accessed Jul 4, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/43868>>.