The general coordinator, in close collaboration with Director Hedwig Fijen and the Heads of Departments, is responsible for coordinating, co-managing, and co-organising the Manifesta 16 Ruhr project. They are crucial in ensuring its successful execution by serving as an intermediary between Manifesta 16 Ruhr, the International Foundation Manifesta (IFM), and local stakeholders. The primary focus of this position is to contribute to the implementation of Manifesta 16 Ruhr by ensuring the smooth running of the organisation in the Ruhr Region. Together with the Director, the General Coordinator is a key figure in conveying the Ruhr idea and maintaining relationships with local and international stakeholders and staff.

Functions of the Manifesta 16 Ruhr General Coordinator

The General Coordinator reports directly to the Director of Manifesta 16 Ruhr and supports the director in executing the board's decisions.

The General Coordinator manages the office staff and assists the Heads of Departments in reaching the objectives set by the Board. S/he ensures compliance with administrative and project management procedures.

Specifically, the General Coordinator is responsible for:

- Coordinate and support the general organisation of the Manifesta 16 Ruhr 2024 Project, supporting the Director, Heads and local institutions.
- Coordinate the technical and fundraising support for the various activities of the Manifesta 16 Ruhr Project.

- Coordinate relations between the local sector and support meetings with the artistic board and the foundation's international staff.
- Promote and supervise the actions of the local teams in terms of technical and administrative management, public programmes, communication, marketing and publications, financing, sponsorship and production.
- Supervise contractual tendering procedures and their execution and ensure compliance with labour and tax regulations.
- Support the implementation of the decisions taken by the Board, the Foundation's governing body, together with the Director, for the correct functioning of the Foundation.

Requirements for applicants

The General Coordinator has a strong organisational background in an international cultural and arts environment and distinguished project and event management and administration skills.
