

4 PhD positions history and theory of architecture (Zurich)

ETH Zurich, Department of Architecture

Application deadline: Feb 15, 2013

Nina Zschocke

The Doctoral Program in History and Theory of Architecture at ETH Zurich is oriented toward the training of scholars in the field of architectural history and theory.

The program's focus is on the history and theory of architecture and urbanism in a wider context of cultural history, including the history and theory of art, science and technology.

We are looking for young researchers with a background in history and theory of architecture and art or architects with research experience. Suitable candidates hold a diploma or a Master's degree acquired at university level in architecture, history of art or related fields. The selected candidates will be enrolled at ETH Zurich. The position will start on October 1, 2013.

For further information about the position please visit our websites <http://doctoral-program.gta.arch.ethz.ch/home> and <http://www.gta.arch.ethz.ch/home>. Please refer to the FAQ section. If you should have any other questions please contact Dr. Nina Zschocke by e-mail nina.zschocke \(at\) gta.arch.ethz.ch (no applications).

Applicants should include a letter of motivation, curriculum vitae, 3 letters of recommendation, and an outline of their future research project.

Please submit your application online until February 15, 2013, using the link provided on this website: <http://internet1.refline.ch/845721/2319/++publications++/1/index.html>
