

Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Notre Dame

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, IN, USA

Application deadline: Apr 10, 2025

Elyse Speaks, Notre Dame

The Department of Art, Art History and Design at the University of Notre Dame invites applications for a one-year full-time Visiting Assistant Professor position in art history, beginning August, 2025, possibly renewable for a second year. The teaching load is 3/3 and a Ph.D. in art history is required. Preference will be given to scholars who can teach required courses as well as those able to teach a range of introductory and intermediate courses in Early Modern/Modern period (14th-19th century).

The Department of Art, Art History, and Design is a vibrant, multidisciplinary department offering graduate and undergraduate programs in studio art, art history, and design. We provide students with intellectually informed instruction in critical visual studies within the context of the liberal arts at an international Catholic research university.

Qualifications

Ph.D in art history

Application Instructions

Applicants should submit the following via the Interfolio website:

- a cover letter
- a curriculum vitae
- candidates must also submit the names and contact information for two references

For information and to submit materials please visit: <https://apply.interfolio.com/165231>

Questions about the position can be directed to Heather Hyde Minor, Heather.HydeMinor.1@nd.edu.

Deadline for applications is April 10, 2025.

Reference:

JOB: Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Notre Dame. In: ArtHist.net, Mar 22, 2025 (accessed Jul 17, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/44884>>.