Deadline: Jun 13, 2025

Ana C. Pinho

ARCHIVO PAPERS - Journal of Photography and Visual Culture.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS.

Associate Editors & Editorial Board Members.

As its current term comes to an end, the Archivo Papers Journal is seeking new members for its Editorial Team and Editorial Board, offering an opportunity to engage with current research trends and contribute to shaping the journal's future. These are voluntary, remote positions.

Published annually, Archivo Papers is an indexed, peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the study of photography, visual archival practices, and their intersections with visual culture. Founded in 2021, it explores both historical and contemporary perspectives on photography within broader archive-driven discourses. Past issues can be found here: <http://archivopapersjournal.com/ojs/index.php/apj/issue/archive>

We aim to welcome new members by September 2025, with an onboarding period from September 2025 to January 2026. After this transition, successful candidates will serve an initial two-year term, with the possibility of extension based on mutual interest.

In collaboration with Archivo Platform, we also organize an annual online conference, Reframing the Archive, which explores themes related to upcoming journal issues. Associate Editors and Editorial Board members are expected to actively contribute to the event's organization, peer review, and/or panel moderation.
