

Research Assistant, Joan Mitchell Catalogue Raisonné, New York

New York City

Application deadline: May 9, 2025

Alexandra Keiser, Joan Mitchell Catalogue Raisonné

The Joan Mitchell Catalogue Raisonné project (JMCR) was established in 2015 to research Mitchell's paintings in preparation of her catalogue raisonné. This long-term research project will result in a scholarly publication documenting the artist's entire painted oeuvre, including entries for each painting with complete descriptive information and detailed histories of ownership, exhibitions, and literature.

JOB TITLE : Research Assistant, Catalogue Raisonné

GRADE/STATUS: Full Time, Non-Exempt

REPORTS TO: Project Director, Catalogue Raisonné

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 2025

HIRING SALARY RANGE: $55,000 – 65,000 per annum

POSITION SUMMARY

Working in collaboration with the catalogue raisonné project director and team, the Research Assistant assists with fact-checking, data entry, and cataloging of Joan Mitchell's paintings. The Research Assistant also supports the collection of research material held in archival, bibliographic, online databases and indexes, and other resources. The Research Assistant helps ensure the accurate and consistent entry of painting details into the digital research database (FileMaker Pro) and assists with both paper and digital file management. This position is hybrid in the Manhattan office (three days a week). This is a full-time position with comprehensive benefits.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist with fact-checking and cataloging details of Joan Mitchell's painted works, including exhibition history and bibliography.
- Communicate closely with the project director, database manager, and team members to assist in updating and maintaining the project's research database (FileMaker Pro) and internal files.
- Assist in verifying research findings by documenting and cross-referencing information from various sources, within archives, libraries, and online databases.
- Assist with obtaining exhibition checklists, bibliographic materials, and other relevant documents from museums, galleries, auction houses, and other cultural institutions, using museum and public library catalog systems, online periodical databases and indexes (both historical and current), digital content repositories, digital libraries, and other resources.
- Consistently and accurately perform cataloging and data entry in accordance with JMCR Style Guidelines and the Chicago Manual of Style.

- In collaboration with team members, assist with administrative tasks related to the project, including updating spreadsheets and calendars.
- Actively participate in departmental and Foundation-wide planning and initiatives.
- Additional responsibilities as assigned by manager.

QUALIFICATIONS, KNOWLEDGE, SKILL REQUIRED

- Minimum bachelor's degree in art history, or a comparable academic field and relevant work experience and competence within the area of the catalogue raisonné interest.
- Excellent research skills in libraries, archives, and online databases, preferably with a 20th-century modernist focus.
- Comfort with relational databases, and enthusiasm for consistent and careful data entry.
- Excellent analytical skills, with the ability and methodology to maintain and communicate relevant findings effectively.
- Strong object-focused cataloging skills and meticulous attention to detail.
- Familiarity with auction house and gallery records.
- A collaborative mindset with the ability to self-direct and work independently.
- Excellent writing, organizational, and communication skills.
- Alignment with the Joan Mitchell Foundation's organizational values.
- Prior experience working on a catalogue raisonné desirable.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

- Compensation: $55,000 – 65,000 per annum
- Medical, Dental, Vision, Short- and Long-Term Disability, Life Insurance
- 401k + Employer match
- Generous PTO, Sick and Floating Holidays
- Commuter benefits (parking and mass transit)
- Pet insurance, group accident insurance, MetLife Auto and Home Insurance, Legal Insurance
- Behavioral Health Employee Assistance Program

Note: The salary range is based on the Foundation's approach and commitment to providing competitive and equitable compensation. The range shared is a guideline for the salary offered, which will be based on several factors including, but not limited to, the candidate's experience, special licensing or qualifications, unique skillsets, and other factors which will impact their contribution to the role and Foundation as a whole. In addition, the Foundation completes regular compensation analysis which aligns with our equitable compensation philosophy.
